

Earth Journey Ladakh

5th to 12th, August

Ladakh, a high altitude desert where communities have evolved a sophisticated earth friendly culture and a prosperous biodiverse agriculture.

Navdanya has been working with the local women communities of Ladakh for the last two decades on seeds, biodiversity and saving the local food heritage.

Come join us on a unique journey to visit one of the most beautiful mountain deserts in the world, & learn about treading lightly & delicately on the earth in our rapidly globalising world.

Join us to be a part of a beautiful culture and tradition and celebrate Seed Festival and Food festival in India with Navdanya's earth Journey to Ladakh.
